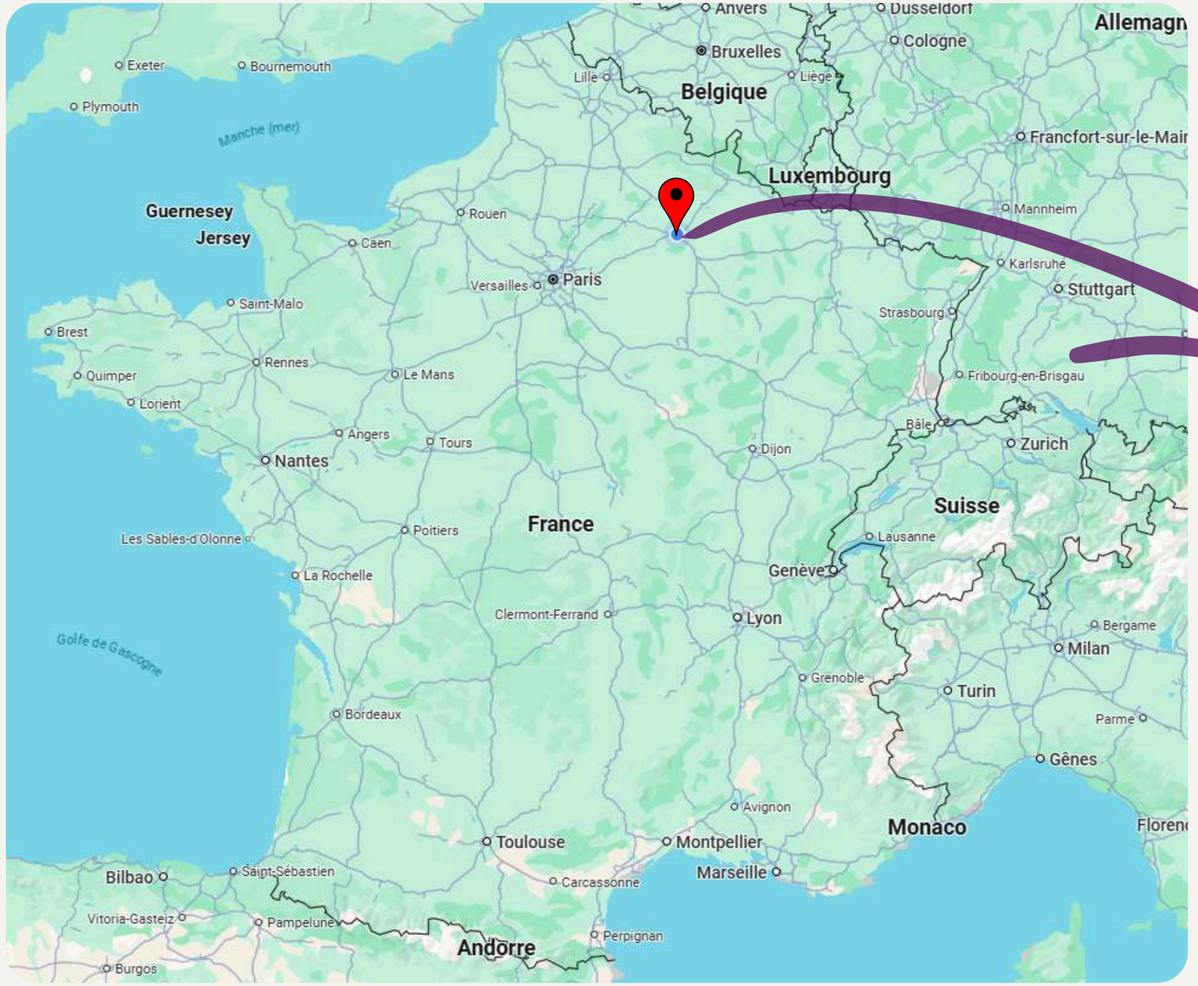
LOCATION



Reims

Reims is a city located in the northeast of France, in the Marne department, within the Grand Est region.

WHO ARE WE?

CRIJ Info Jeunes Grand Est

CRIJ Info Jeunes Grand Est is a non-profit organization based in Reims, in the northeast of France.
The organization leads the youth information network across the Grand Est region.

Our main missions for young people:

- To welcome them and inform them about their rights and all the opportunities available to them
- To support and guide them, individually or in groups
- To give them the tools to understand their environment and their rights
- To help them develop their skills

THE INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY TEAM

Raphaël

International Mobility Coordinator

He is your supervisor, and you will be working with him throughout your entire volunteering period.

Susanna

International Mobility Coordinator

She will be sitting next to you in the office, and you will work with her to organize the Time to Move forum.

Viktoria

European Solidarity Corps (ESC) volunteer

I will be finishing my volunteering at the end of May :(You can contact me if you need any further details about the role.

Anthony

ESC Coordinator Reception

Your mentor who coordinates the ESC volunteers in the region and takes care of administrative matters.

Melek

Head of the EUROPE DIRECT Centre in Reims

She will be in the same office as you, and you will work with her on activities in middle schools.

TASKS

ESC Support

With Raphaël, I inform young people about the ESC and help them find a placement. During their volunteering, I will create reports, write articles, and more.

ESC Community in Reims

With Anthony, I will propose activities and discussion sessions for all volunteers in Reims and the surrounding region.

TASKS

Time to Move Forum

In October, I will help Susanna organize our large Time to Move forum (800 participants).
Leading workshops, hosting information sessions, and providing information about the ESC.

In high schools

I will take part in many outreach sessions with Raphaël and Melek to talk about international mobility opportunities for young people.

TASKS

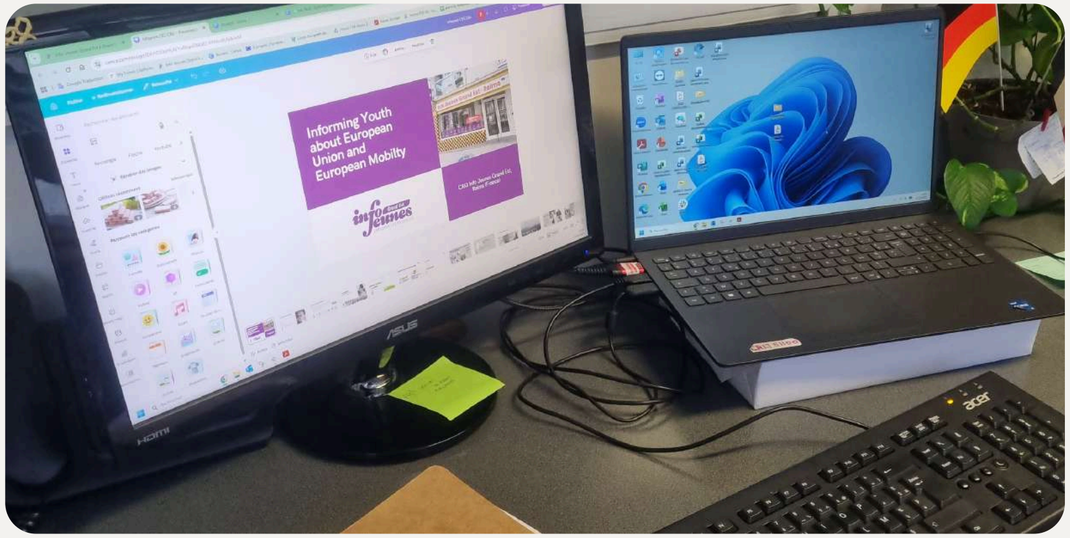
Social Media

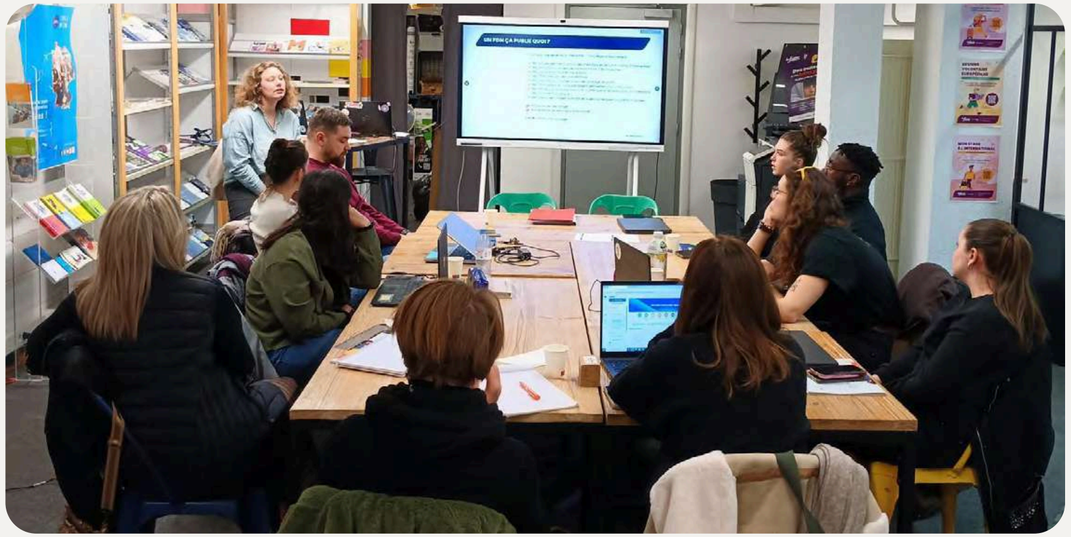
On @ij.getmove, I will publish posts, stories, and reels about the ESC and international mobility in general.

In middle schools

With Melek, I will deliver sessions on European citizenship and my home country.

TASKS





Administrative tasks

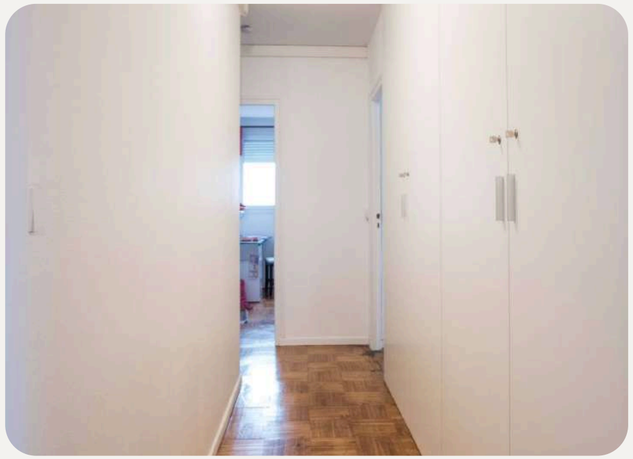
I create presentations on Canva, write articles, and produce reports on activities…
It does happen, but it’s only a small part of my role.

Participating in team meetings

I take part in the whole team meetings on Monday mornings, as well as meetings for certain projects.

ACCOMODATION

Shared apartment in the city center



The volunteer will live in a shared fully furnished apartment (with the best view in Reims!). They will have their own bedroom.The bathroom, kitchen, and living room will be shared.

The flat is a 20-minute walk from the CRIJ.

PRACTICAL AND DAILY LIFE

Practical arrangements

Working time is 35 hours per week.
The volunteer will also benefit from two days of leave per month.
The volunteer will receive pocket money (€7 per day) as well as a monthly allowance for meals and transport (around €290 per month).

THE IDEAL VOLUNTEER

For us, an ideal volunteer is someone who:

- Likes varied tasks
- Enjoys interacting with other young people
- Is able to speak in front of a group (not alone)
- Is eager to learn
- Enjoys working in a team
- Is curious
- Can take initiative
- Can express themselves in French (B1 level)
- Likes champagne 😉
