Work with kids

EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS

TRATWA stowarzyszenie

What is TRATWA?

The history of TRATWA (which means “raft” in English) began with the Non-Governmental Information Centre established in August 1997 as a spontaneous attempt to overcome effects and to provide basic assistance to victims of the flood, which less than a month earlier struck the southwestern regions of Poland.

Today our main objectives include development and professionalization of the third sector, providing quality support to young people in risk of exclusion through non-formal education methods and promotion of volunteering, intercultural and intergenerational awareness and mutual respect. Through the years Tratwa renovated and rebuilt two tram depots in Wroclaw ; PPM Zajezdnia and Czsaoprzestrzen. Our structures have welcomed local community and long term volunteers to exchange and share during event, workshops, activities, language classes and much more.

What is ENTE?

Ente Kindergarten and Elementary School is a place that kids come to with pleasure and do not wish to leave, which is something we truly care about and appreciate. Ente is a language elementary school, as we – teachers and our assistants – talk to children in foreign languages. They can choose to answer in either Polish, or foreign language. Some assistants do not understand Polish, which encourages kids to search for other ways to communicate – the use of English usually proves effective.

Ente's goal is to create an environment in which our young ones grow to associate foreign languages as something positive. They are not forced to learn anything – they acquire their second language naturally, just like it was with their native one.

What you're going to do?

The volunteers will join us in fulfilling these goals by:

- Preparing activities for the children,
- Assisting the tutor in the daily routine,
- Participating in activities organized by other adults and teenagers, including excursions around Wrocław and its surroundings,
- Communicating in English,
- Establishing relationships with children and teachers,
- Sharing their interests.

The ESC program

EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CORPS

A program financed by European Union which gives you the opportunity to travel, discover, learn and improve !

Travel cost

Participants will not purchase their flight tickets on their own without prior consultation. After discussing the departure location and travel details with us, there will be two options:

1. We will purchase the ticket for them within the travel cost limit calculated according to the ESC distance band guidelines;

or

2. They will purchase the ticket themselves, respecting the same distance-based budget limit. In this case, the reimbursement will be made after their arrival, upon signing the volunteering agreement and providing the following documents:

- Proof of travel (e.g. boarding passes or tickets),
- An invoice or receipt showing the cost of the ticket,
- And proof of payment (e.g. a bank statement or payment confirmation).

Accommodation

Tratwa NGO will provide the volunteers with accommodation, that consists of shared rooms (same gender) or single rooms. They should be ready to share the living spaces with others.

HENNER

Volunteers are covered by HENNER - European type insurance. If volunteers already have a public or pivate insurance, HENNER will be an extention to it. All volunteers should have European Health Insurance Card.

Pocket money and food allowance

Pocket money and food allowance will be given to each volunteer on their bank accounts at the beginning of each month. The amount is calculated with the following information : 6 euros/day + 4 euros/day. For your consideration, 1 € = 4.32 zł.

WE BELIEVE IN SOLIDARITY, WE BELIEVE IN YOUTH, WE BELIEVE IN YOU !

What are the next steps?

1. Read this infokit carefully (Activities, dates and Volunteers profile)
2. Send your CV and filled attached form to this mail address : esc@tratwa.org. In the subject of email please put the name of the project
3. Later you will receive an email with more information and proposition for an interview
